D.O. Letter No./UPCEFS/

Dated : 13.02.2014

Sir/Madam,

Warm greetings. It is my immense pleasure and profound honour to inform you that the Government of Uttarakhand has constituted the Uttarakhand Jan Sahayog Shiksha Kosh Yojana-2013 (Uttarakhand Public Co-operation in Educational Fund Scheme-2013), with the objectives to mobilise resources from esteemed private partners for enhancement of infrastructure and learning environment in Government schools.

The source of income of Uttarakhand Jan Sahayog Shiksha Kosh Yojana-2013 (Uttarakhand Public Co-operation in Educational Fund Scheme-2013) will be through donations/grant in aid from Central/State Government, Government and Semi-Government bodies, contribution from Industrialists, Commercial Institutions/Universities, Trusts, Non-Government Organizations, contribution made by personal donations and donations by alumni/students organisations etc.

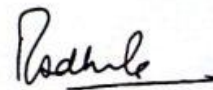

The fund will be regulated under the prevailing financial rules and as per directives issued by State Government from time to time. Donations will be utilized for the same purpose in which the donor has granted. For details you may visit the link on our website 'www.schooleducation.uk.gov.in' and go through Government Order No.-27/XXIV-5/2012 dated 13th May 2013.

You are kindly requested to contribute your valuable financial support for the noble cause under the Corporate Social Responsibility for the harmonious and integrated development of School Education in Uttarakhand. To synergise the public co-operation for the Uttarakhand Jan Sahayog Shiksha Kosh Yojana-2013 (Uttarakhand Public Co-operation in Educational Fund Scheme-2013), the State Government is also supposed to nominate three private members in the Executive Body headed by the Hon'ble Minister School Education, Government of Uttarakhand.

In light of the above, you are also requested to give suggestions to enhance the functioning of the Uttarakhand Jan Sahayog Shiksha Kosh Yojana-2013 (Uttarakhand Public Co-operation in Educational Fund Scheme-2013).

Looking forward to your partnership in our endeavour to provide better Education to our Children.

With regards,

(Radhika Jha)

To,
